 2. Absence control begins at five (5) unscheduled occurrences within a 12 month period. Multiple days of continuous absence are counted as one occurrence. Occurrences of absence are separated by a return to work. The twelve-month period will begin with the date of the first absence. Upon the twelve-month anniversary of each occurrence of absence, it will no longer be considered in the disciplinary procedure outlined in paragraph 5 below.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

3. Employees absent three or more consecutive days due to illness may be required to submit a physician's statement indicating they are able to return to work. A physician's statement does not excuse any occurrence of unscheduled absence.
4. Leaving work after reporting to work without prior arrangement is considered an unplanned absence.
5. The following absences, with proper notification, are excluded from this policy:
 - a. Bereavement leave;
 - b. Off work due to a work-related injury with medical verification that the employee is unable to work;
 - c. Off work due to jury duty, military leave, FMLA leave, subpoenas, or any other absence expressly authorized by the County or law; and

 - d. Tenth occurrence of absence will result in an unpaid suspension (5 working days).
 - e. Eleventh occurrence of absence may result in separation from employment.
7. If an employee has established a pattern of excessive absenteeism, the agency head or designee may initiate disciplinary action at any time notwithstanding PR 404 (B) (6).
8. Supervisors will maintain a current attendance log for each employee containing accurate documentation of absences.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

C. Tardiness

An employee is tardy when they fail to arrive or to be ready to begin their workday at the time predetermined by the agency head or when they return from an unpaid lunch break.
2. Failure to be on time and ready to begin the work day may result in disciplinary action upon the fifth (5) tardy within a 12 month period. The twelve-month period will begin with the date of the first tardiness. Upon the twelve-month anniversary of an occurrence of tardiness, it will no longer be considered in the Disciplinary Procedure outlined in paragraph 5 below.
3. Each time an employee cannot report to work at their designated start time, but will report to work after that designated start time, he/she must notify their supervisor of their tardiness and their estimated arrival time according to department policy.
4. PTO leave will not be used to cover periods of tardiness.
5. The Yuma County Disciplinary Procedure will be followed when addressing tardiness using the following guidelines:
 - a. Fifth tardy will result in a documented verbal warning.
 - b. Eighth tardy will result in a written warning.
 - c. Ninth tardy will result in an unpaid suspension (3 working days).
 - d. Tenth tardy will result in an unpaid suspension (5 working days).
 - e. Eleventh tardy may result in separation from employment.
6. If an employee has established a pattern of excessive tardiness, the agency head or designee may initiate disciplinary action at any time notwithstanding PR 404 (C) (5).

Historical Note: Adopted, Eff. 11/25/1994

PR-411 Family and Medical Leave Act

- A. Purpose: It is the policy of Yuma County to comply with the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and to provide eligible employees up to 12 weeks of leave within a 12-month period for certain family and medical reasons. The County is a covered employer under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, Public Law 103-3 [H.R.1]; February 5, 1993, 107 Stat. 6 to 107 Stat. 29.
 - 1. An employee's rights under the act are set forth below in summary format. The full text of the FMLA is available from the Human Resources Department for review by any employee, and the full text and any statutes or rules, which implement the FMLA, shall govern any employee's rights notwithstanding any provision of these personnel rules, which may be inconsistent with the FMLA.
- B. Eligible employees are Yuma County employees who have worked for Yuma County for twelve months and 1,250 hours during the 12 months preceding the date for the requested leave. For purposes of calculating the 1,250 hour requirement, the number of hours worked does not include paid time off (i.e. PTO leave, vacation, sick leave, holidays, compensatory time off, etc.), any unpaid leave hours, or periods of layoff. Overtime hours are included. The determining factor is whether the time is considered hours of work under the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).

C. Procedure:

Types of permissible FMLA leave: An eligible employee may request FMLA leave for one or more of the following reasons.

1. To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
2. To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, parent and/or individual who stands or stood in loco parentis; who has a serious health condition;
3. For the employee's own serious health condition (including any period of incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or childbirth) that makes the employee unable to perform one or more of the essential functions of the employee's job;
4. For a qualifying exigency (QE) (leave)—arising out of the fact that an employee's spouses, a son or daughter, or parent is a covered military member on active duty or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty status in the national guard or reserves in support of contingency operations; and/or
5. For an employee to care for their spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin who is a service member who has suffered a serious injury or illness in the line of active duty. For the purposes of service member leave/military caregiver leave, the term "next of kin" is defined as the service members' closest blood relative outside of his spouse, parent, or child. If one blood relative has been given legal custody of the service member, then that person would be the next of kin. In all other cases, next of kin would be considered in the following order: Siblings, grandparents, aunts or uncles, and first cousins. If more than one person is equal in this line of succession (e.g., two sisters), then all of the equal blood relations (both sisters, for example) will qualify as the service member's next of kin, and all of them can take leave under this provision of the FMLA. If the service member has designated a blood relative to be his next of kin, then that person will be considered the service member's only next of kin for purposes of this FMLA provision.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

D. Calculation of Leave:

1. An employee may be allotted up to 12 weeks of paid or unpaid leave for an FMLA qualifying reason during a 12-month period. The 12-month period will be determined on a rolling 12 months basis measured backward from the date an employee uses his/her FMLA leave. All FMLA leave used during that period will be counted as part of the allowed 12 weeks of FMLA leave.
 - a. Example: A covered employee requests 12 weeks of FMLA leave to begin June 1, 2009, for a permissible Medical Leave reason. The employee had previously used six weeks of approved FMLA leave from July 11, 2008, through August 19, 2008, for a permissible Family Leave reason. Thus, the employee only has six weeks of FMLA allotment remaining because the approved Family Leave used during the preceding 12 months counted towards the employee's FMLA allotment. However, the employee may utilize the remaining six-week allotment as long as a qualifying medical leave reason exists.
 - b. An exception to the above example is if both spouses are employed by Yuma County, then the 12 weeks of Family Leave is limited to a combined total (between the spouses) of 12 weeks during the 12 months following the birth or placement of a child.
2. Service Member Leave/Military Caregiver Leave differs from all other types of FMLA leave in that it can last up to 26 weeks (taken in one block or intermittently). This type of leave must be used during a single 12-month period. The 12-month period for this kind of leave begins when the employee takes the first day of the caregiver leave.
 - a. All types of FMLA leave taken by an employee during the same 12-month period are added together for purposes of computing the 26-week period. For example, if an employee had already taken 12 weeks of FMLA leave to care for a newborn or their own serious health condition, the employee would only have 14 weeks remaining to use for injured service member leave.

E. Serious health condition: A serious health condition is defined as an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:

1. Hospital care: Inpatient care (i.e. an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility, including any period of incapacity or subsequent treatment in connection with or consequent to the inpatient care; or,

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

2. Absence plus treatment: A period of incapacity of more than three consecutive calendar days (including any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to the same condition) that also involves either; (1) treatment two or more times by a health care provider, by a nurse or physician's assistant under the direct supervision of a health care provider or by a provider of health care services (i.e. physical therapist) under orders of, or referral by, a health care provider; or (2) treatment by a health care provider on at least one occasion which results in a regime of continuing treatment under the supervision of the health care provider.
 3. Pregnancy: Any period of incapacity due to pregnancy and pre-natal care.
 4. Chronic conditions requiring treatments: A chronic condition which (1) requires periodic visits for treatment by a health care provider, or by a nurse or physician's assistant under the direct supervision of a health care provider; (2) continues over an extended period of time (including recurring episodes of a single underlying condition) and (3) may cause episodic rather than a continuing period of incapacity (i.e. asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, etc)
 5. Permanent/long-term condition requiring supervision: A period of incapacity that is permanent or long-term due to a condition for which treatment may not be effective. The employee or family member must be under the continuing supervision of, but need not be receiving active treatment by, a health care provider (i.e. Alzheimer's, a severe stroke, or the terminal stages of a disease).
 6. Multiple treatments (non-chronic conditions): Any period of absence to receive multiple treatments (including any period of recovery there from) by a health care provider or by a provider of health care services under the orders of, or on referral by, a health care provider, either for restorative surgery after an accident or other injury, or for a condition that would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three consecutive calendar days in the absence of medical intervention or treatment, such as cancer (chemotherapy, radiation, etc.) severe arthritis (physical therapy) and kidney disease (dialysis).
- F. Employee request for FMLA leave: A leave of absence may be counted toward an employee's FMLA allotment even if they do not specifically request FMLA, so long as the reason for the leave qualifies under the FMLA and the leave is properly documented by the Appointing Authority and Human Resources. However, to be assured of certain protections offered by the FMLA during the leave of absence, employees must request FMLA leave.
1. An employee must submit to Human Resources a request for a leave of absence not less than 30 days prior to the requested start of the leave.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

2. If the reason for the leave could not have been foreseen 30 days in advance, the employee must submit the request for leave within five (5) days after the need for leave is discovered.
3. If an employee is incapacitated, a family member or other responsible party may submit the request for leave on behalf of the employee.
4. An employee request for a leave of absence may be verbal or in writing and should include applicable documentation verifying the need for the leave. Provisional approval of leave should be granted pending receipt of more complete documentation if original information is unavailable, incomplete, or inadequate.

G. Required Documentation:

When an employee requests FMLA leave, Human Resources will request the completion of a certification of health care provider form or appropriate documentation within 15 calendar days of the date of the request. (The Certification of Health Care Provider form is the only acceptable form that may be used by Human Resources to obtain information from the employee's health care provider.) In the event a medical emergency or other unforeseeable event prevents the completion of the Certification of Health Care Provider form, the employee must contact Human Resources as soon as practicable to request an extension.

H. Approval of FMLA Leave:

If sufficient documentation has been provided by the employee to determine whether the requested leave qualifies under the FMLA, Human Resources will notify the employee and the employee's agency head in writing that the leave is being approved as FMLA leave.

1. If the employee has not submitted sufficient documentation to make the determination, Human Resources shall immediately notify the employee in writing that the leave is being approved as FMLA leave subject to the receipt and review of the Certification of Health Care Provider form.
2. Human Resources shall provide the employee with a copy of the Certification of Health Care Provider form to assist the Health Care Provider in completing the required analysis. The Certification of Health Care Provider form and attachments should be given or sent directly to the employee for the employee to submit to his/her own Health Care Provider.
3. It is the employee's responsibility to return the Certification of Health Care Provider form within 15 calendar days after receipt of the notice of eligibility and rights and responsibilities FMLA form. Refusal to provide the requested certification within the designated time may result in the denial of leave and/or disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. Additional medical clearance may be required upon return to work if the leave was approved due to the serious health condition of the employee.

4. Upon receipt of the completed Certification of Health Care Provider form, Human Resources should review the information provided to determine whether the reason for the leave constitutes a serious health condition. If Human Resources determines that the information provided in the Certification of Health Care provider is sufficient to conclude that the employee's condition is a serious health condition, Human Resources will notify the employee in writing that the leave has been given final approval.
 - a. The final approval letter should also specifically indicate the start date of the FMLA leave and anticipated return to work date. If an employee disagrees with the start date established by Human Resources, the employee must notify Human Resources of the dispute as soon as possible.
 - b. If the information provided in the Certification of Health Care Provider is not sufficient to conclude that the employee's condition is a serious health condition, Human Resources may either request that the employee obtain clarification from the employee's health care provider (within seven days to correct incomplete or insufficient certifications) or may request that the employee receive an additional examination by another health care provider designated by Human Resources.
 - c. The additional examination shall be at the employer's expense. In the event that the additional examination concludes that the employee's condition is not a serious health condition, Human Resources may request that the employee receive a third examination by a health care provider designated by an agreement with Human Resources and the employee. The third examination shall be at the employer's expense, and shall be conclusive.
 - d. If an employee fails to obtain and return the required documentation to Human Resources within 15 days, Human Resources will notify the employee of the omission and require submission of the documentation. By the fifteenth (15) day, if Human Resources determines that the documentation is insufficient, the employee will then have seven (7) days to provide sufficient documentation. An employee who fails to submit the required supporting documentation within the required seven-day (7) time frame may be subject to disciplinary action by the agency head up to and including dismissal. Additionally, the provisional approval of the employee's leave may be revoked, and the employee may be deemed absent without authorized leave.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

- I. Designation of leave as FMLA leave: Human Resources may designate (in writing) a qualifying paid or unpaid leave of absence as being counted toward an employee's 12 week allotment under the FMLA, even if the employee has not requested an FMLA leave. In order to do so, however, Human Resources must obtain the appropriate documentation to demonstrate that the leave was taken for an FMLA qualifying reason. It is recommended that whenever an employee has been absent for three (3) or more full working days due to a possible FMLA qualifying reason, Human Resources should designate the leave as FMLA leave in writing, pending receipt of appropriate documentation. Human Resources determines whether the reasons for the leave qualify under the FMLA.
- J. Requests for intermittent or reduced scheduled leave: Approval of an employee's request for leave on an intermittent or reduced scheduled basis (rather than consecutive days) will depend upon what the request is for.
 - 1. If the request is to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care; Human Resources may permit the employee to take the leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis (including absences of less than a full day). However, if Human Resources determines that the leave will not be approved on an intermittent basis, it does not mean that Human Resources may deny an otherwise qualifying leave request altogether.
 - 2. If the request is for any other FMLA purpose, Human Resources must approve the leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis if the use of intermittent or reduced schedule leave is determined to be medically necessary by an appropriate Health Care Provider. However, even where the use of intermittent or reduced schedule leave is determined to be medically necessary by an appropriate Health Care Provider, Human Resources may work with the employee to determine the best means of scheduling of the intermittent or reduced schedule leave based upon the operational needs of the organization.
 - 3. If leave is approved on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis, only the time not actually worked by the employee will be counted toward the employee's allotment under the FMLA. The time not worked will be calculated on an hourly basis. Time not worked as part of a part-time light duty assignment may also be counted towards an employee's FMLA allotment.
 - 4. An employee's request for intermittent or reduced schedule leave must be made in the same manner and within the same time restrictions as a request for FMLA leave on a consecutive day basis.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

- K. Use of paid leave during FMLA leave: if FMLA is approved, the employee will first use all available compensatory leave, then PTO leave, then sick leave, and then annual (vacation) leave
1. Documentation of the amount of FMLA leave used by an employee is both the Human Resources' and the agency head's responsibility. Human Resources will track and maintain records relating to FMLA leave as reported by the agency head. If any portion of the FMLA leave is to be without pay, the leave must be entered as FMLA unpaid.
- L. Continuation of benefits: During the period of the FMLA leave, the employee's health insurance coverage will be maintained at the same level and under the same conditions that coverage would have been provided the employee had remained on the job continuously. The employee's share of any health insurance premium and any other employee-paid premiums will continue to be the employee's responsibility. In the case of unpaid leave, the employee should contact the Benefits Representative to make arrangements for payment of any benefits that would normally have been paid through payroll deduction.
- M. Employment upon return to work: Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Human Resources and the agency head may hire an individual in a temporary status to replace the employee on FMLA leave, subject to fiscal considerations.
- The use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.
- N. Records and confidentiality: Human Resources shall maintain the following records detailing FMLA leaves of absence:
1. Documentation of the employee's request for Family or Medical Leave.
 2. Written records showing the date that the employee's verbal or written request was received.
 3. Documentation of approval or denials of FMLA leave, including start date, and anticipated return date, for any approved leave.
 4. Dates FMLA leave was taken, including dates and hours taken, if leave was taken in increments of less than one full day.
 5. Employee medical certification records: (note: Retention of all medical information must be done in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act's confidentiality requirements and HIPAA). All employee medical information that contains specific information regarding an employee's current diagnosis, prognosis, medical condition or medical history must be maintained in a separate, sealed and locked file, apart from general personnel files in Human Resources. Absent extraordinary circumstances, immediate supervisors will only be informed regarding an employee's restrictions related to their Essential Functions and/or necessary accommodations.

6. Documentation regarding any dispute between the employee and Human Resources or agency head regarding the designation of the leave as FMLA leave.
 7. Written documentation indicating that the employee has been offered FMLA leave and either chooses not to take it, and/or terminates as an alternative to the FMLA leave.
 8. The agency head will maintain time sheets and other related payroll, benefits and earning records.
- O. Enforcement: The U.S. Department of Labor is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of violations.
1. An eligible employee may bring a civil action against an employer for violations.
 2. FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.
 3. An employee may grieve any violation of the FMLA which directly affects the employee; this right to grieve, however, shall not limit in any manner any right the employee may have under Federal or State law to bring civil action for any violation.

B. Policy

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

Employees must be completely relieved from their duties in a designated room and not interrupted during break time to express milk.

C. Responsibilities

Employers are required to provide a designated room which is not a bathroom that can be locked and is shielded from view by the public and co-workers. Employees who work offsite or in other locations will be accommodated with a designated room as necessary.

A refrigerator may be available for the storage of breast milk. Any employee storing breast milk in a refrigerator assumes all responsibility for the safety of the milk and the risk of harm for any reason.

Employees are required to request the need for a designated room to their Supervisor and establish their lactation needs and approximate schedule.

PR-417 Extended Illness Leave

- A. General: To establish guidelines and procedures by which Yuma County employees and Superior Court employees in Yuma County may donate accumulated leave to employees with serious medical conditions. This policy is based on compassion and generosity and may promote a spirit of cohesiveness and mutual support among employees.
1. Employees with serious medical conditions may seek limited financial relief through the donation of PTO or vacation leave and sick time from fellow employees. This will enable employees to remain on paid status after PTO, annual (vacation); compensatory time and sick leave have been exhausted.
 2. Donation of PTO leave, vacation leave, and sick time may be made among all levels of County and Superior Court in Yuma County employment and is based on the dollar value of the leave donated.
 3. The Extended Illness Bank (EIB) shall be funded by accrued PTO leave, annual vacation, and sick leave that is donated by fellow employees: and by donations of separation sick leave; and by donations of separation PTO (deducted from the reimbursable hours) pursuant to PR-417E (2) of this policy. All donations shall be strictly voluntary.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

4. The dollar ratio of donated leave will be adjusted proportionately to the salaries of the donor and recipient. The payroll office is responsible for making such calculations. The recipient and the County are under no obligation to repay the donated hours of monies once they have been donated.
- B. Policy: Yuma County recognizes the existence of circumstances under which non-job-related illnesses or injuries and other emergencies may occur that causes employees to exhaust all leave balances. It is the objective of Yuma County to provide eligible employees with the opportunity to recuperate from extended illness or injuries without undue hardship. This opportunity in the form of paid leave from the EIB is a privilege, not a right. The County has established the following process through which employees may donate to or seek the use of donated hours from the Extended Illness Bank (EIB).
- C. Eligibility: An employee may receive payment under this EIB program if the employee, as defined under the FMLA, suffers from an illness, non-job related injury, or impairment which has caused, or will cause the employee to go on leave without pay or if an employee's family member, as defined under the FMLA, suffers injury or illness which requires the employee's care, or qualifies under the service member or caregiver leave (as defined under military statutes). Employees must follow the appropriate procedures for obtaining a leave of absence before making the application to receive donated leave.
1. The recipient must follow the Yuma County policies concerning use of leaves of absence and FMLA.
 2. The recipient must be in regular status as a Yuma County employee, with at least twelve months of employment and have worked a minimum of 1250 hours within the last 12 months; and have completed original probation in order to draw from the EIB. (Refer to FMLA section 411)
 3. The recipient must have exhausted all leave to be eligible to receive credit from the EIB program.
 4. The employee or immediate family member (as defined under the FMLA) must qualify for leave under the provisions of the FMLA.
 5. The recipient must not be receiving funds from workers' compensation, or long-term disability.
 6. The employee is not eligible to receive payments from the retirement system to which they are contributing.
 7. The employee is not eligible to receive social security disability benefits.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

8. The employee is not eligible for any publicly funded financial assistance program for disability.

The maximum cumulative donated leave that may be given to a recipient will be 160 hours within a 12-month period. The 12-month period will commence on the date of the first day of extended illness leave.

A potential recipient may apply before paid leave balances are exhausted, and if accepted, payment will be made when eligibility begins.

D. Procedures To Request Extended Illness Leave:

Requesting Extended Illness Bank (EIB): An employee wishing to receive Extended Illness Leave shall submit a completed EIB form to the Human Resources Department. In the event that the employee is unable to do so, a personal representative may submit the request on behalf of the employee.

1. The Human Resources Representative will process the request, reviewing it for eligibility and assigning a numeric code no later than three (3) working days after receipt of all required FMLA documentation.
2. The approved request will be forwarded to the Financial Services Department and solicitation (if applicable) will be announced via intranet (via email). In compliance with HIPAA the medical condition will remain confidential.
3. Once the request is approved, the Human Resources Department shall notify the recipient or personal representative.
4. Payment for approved EIB hours will be depending upon actual need and the dollars available in the bank. There will be no retroactive applications of EIB funds, except to correct administrative errors.
5. In the event that the EIB application is denied, the Human Resources Representative shall notify the applicant or personal representative of the specific reasons for denial.
6. If the employee is on FMLA leave, the period of time paid by the EIB of up to 160 hours shall also run concurrently with unpaid leave under the Family & Medical Leave Policy.
7. The usage of EIB does not allow for the accrual of any other paid leave or for the payment of holiday pay.

E. Procedure to donate hours to the extended illness bank:

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

1. Donations to EIB: An employee wishing to donate PTO leave, vacation, or sick leave may do so by completing a leave donation authorization form and forwarding it to Finance, Attention: Payroll.
 - a. An employee may donate up to 160 PTO or vacation hours per calendar year. An employee who donates PTO or vacation leave must maintain a minimum balance of 160 PTO or 40 vacation hours.
 - b. A Superior Court employee in Yuma County may donate up to 80 sick hours per calendar year. An employee who donates sick leave must maintain a minimum balance of 160 sick hours.
 - c. Pursuant to PR-403C. (G) The eligible employees may donate any unused portion of sick leave credits to the EIB upon separation from Superior Court in Yuma County service.
 - d. Any accumulated vacation in excess of 240 hours may voluntarily be donated to the EIB, instead of forfeiting it.
 - e. Any unused portion of a donation made to a specific employee will be transferred to the EIB general pool unless the donor requests, upon making the donation, that any unused portion of the donation be transferred back to their accrued time. This will not apply to those making donations pursuant to PR-417(E) (1) (C) & (D).
 - f. Donors will remain anonymous unless indicating otherwise on the form upon making a donation.
 - g. If the donation request is not approved, the Payroll Office will notify the donor of the reason for disallowance.
2. The value of a donation is determined by the value of the time before donated and transferred to EIB general or specified pool and the same will retain this value, forever. To illustrate:
 - a. John Doe earns $20.00 an hour. He donates 10 hours of time to the EIB general pool. The value of this donation is $200.00.
 - b. Jane Doe earns $20.00 an hour. She donates 10 hours to John Roe, who earns $15.00 an hour. The value of the donation to John Roe is $200.00.
 - c. John Roe uses only $150.00 of the donation. Jane Doe requested that any unused portion be returned to her accrued time. 2.5 hours of leave time will be transferred back into her accrued vacation time.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

- d. John Roe uses only $150.00 of the donation. Jane Doe did not request that any unused portion be returned to her accrued time. $50.00 will be transferred into the EIB general pool.
- e. John Roe is retiring and donates all of accrued separation sick time, 100 hours, to be used by Jane Doe. The value of the donation is $300.00 ($3.00 x 100). If Jane Doe does not use the entire $300.00, the unused portion must be transferred into the EIB general pool. (See PR-417(E) (1))

PR-418 PTO Buy Back

- A. Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines and procedures for the buyback of certain employee PTO benefits.
 - 1. The establishment of such a PTO buyback program promotes efficiency and morale by providing a mechanism whereby eligible employees may sell back to the County PTO that will not be used for other purposes.
 - 2. The PTO Buy Back Program shall be funded on a fiscal year basis, contingent upon Board approval. In all cases, employee participation in the program is strictly voluntary.
 - 3. It is a violation of Yuma County policy and public policy for any County employee to coerce, threaten, intimidate or financially induce or reward another employee to participate in the PTO Buy Back Program.
- B. Policy: Yuma County recognizes the existence of circumstances under which some employees have accumulated PTO that will not be used in a calendar year and will be rolled over to the next year. It is the objective of Yuma County to provide eligible employees with the opportunity to take time to recreate each year while at the same time reducing the total outstanding hours of PTO it is obligated to pay.

An employee may sell back to the County one week (40 hours) of PTO.

- C. Eligibility: An employee may receive payment of one week (40 hours) PTO or vacation per calendar year under this PTO Buy Back Program, provided the employee meets all of the following conditions:
 - 1. Twelve (12) full months of continuous service immediately prior to December 1st of the year in which PTO is applied.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

2. A “Meets” or better performance rating on their most recent performance evaluation and not be subject to disciplinary action at the time the PTO buyback is requested.
 3. Use, or be scheduled to use, at least 40 hours of PTO by December 31st of the year in which PTO buyback is requested, and
 4. Retain a PTO balance, after the buyback and PTO used during the year are applied, of at least 80 hours of PTO.
 5. Comply with the provisions of PR- 403.
- D. Procedures to sell back PTO: An employee wishing to sell back one week (40 hours) of PTO must do the following:

Forms can also be obtained online at the Human Resources website.
 2. Specify when, during the course of the calendar year, the one week (40 hours) minimum PTO will be taken or has been taken. The Human Resources Department will process the request, reviewing it for eligibility.

PR-421 Educational Involvement Leave

The Yuma County Board of Supervisors recognizes the importance of excellence in education and commits its support of education through the participation of County employees in the educational process. All employees are encouraged to actively participate in the educational system by volunteering in the schools and, as appropriate, by becoming involved in the education and development of their children.

In order to support employees and to foster educational involvement, the County will provide paid educational involvement leave to all regular status employees upon adoption of this rule. This leave may be used for time away from work in a certified pre-school, accredited private school, or public school setting for purposes of:

1. Assisting in tutorial programs.
2. Serving as a guest lecturer.
3. Attending parent-teacher conferences or other school-supported activities.

Under provisions of this policy, the County will donate on a matching basis up to eight (8) hours of educational involvement leave to each full-time regular status employee per school year. (Leave for regular status part-time employees will be prorated.) As a result, one-half of the required time away from work will be contributed by the County, while the other half will be taken from accrued comp time or PTO leave.

Effective with the pay period beginning August 1 of each year, regular status employees will have the appropriate educational involvement leave hours available for use during the coming school year through August 1 of the next year. Educational involvement leave hours do not accumulate, will not be carried forward from year to year, and will not be paid out upon termination.

4. Attorneys who complete 12 consecutive months of employment in a qualifying position in the middle of a quarter will be eligible to receive benefits for the following full quarter upon acceptance into the LRAP.
5. Such benefits will be based on the actual amount of payment made in same quarter of the preceding year (“qualifying quarter”), subject to the limits addressed in Section D.4, above.
6. Employees eligible for loan repayment funds from other sources (i.e. governmental programs, National Association for Public Interest Law (NAPIL) or Equal Justice Works (EJW) fellowships, law school programs, etc.) must first apply to these programs for assistance.
7. Employees must apply for and participate in all other sources of loan repayment assistance, forgiveness, and cancellation that are available to them. CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

PR – 423 Telework

A. Purpose

Telework is a cooperative arrangement between employees and employing departments/offices.

Telework is defined as work arrangements in which an employee performs assigned job duties at home or at another worksite and may include utilizing various forms of county owned telecommunications technology.

Telework will provide flexibility when determining employee work schedules and work locations. This telework policy will authorize employees and their directors to adjust their work arrangements within the guidelines and requirements contained herein.

Benefits:

- Ability to function and provide services during an emergency when the regular worksite is inaccessible;
- Preserving productivity;
- Efficient use of county resources;
- Recruitment and retention of highly qualified employees;
- Greater flexibility for employees, departments and offices; and
- Improved employee morale and job satisfaction.

B. Policy

Telework is an alternative work arrangement developed by the department head/elected official in consultation with the employee. Telework may be appropriate for some employees and some positions; however, telework is not a countywide benefit and may be discontinued at any time at the sole discretion of the board of supervisors and/or department head/elected official.

All telework programs shall comply with county and department/office policies and state statutes.

The Board of Supervisors (BOS) delegates authority to the County Administrator for the implementation and execution of this policy.

Teleworking is a privilege, not a right. All county employees who telework must have an approved telework agreement under this policy.

Telework does not change the essential duties, obligations, responsibilities or terms and conditions of county employment. Telework employees must comply with county rules, policies, practices and instructions. Approval will be made on a case-by-case basis in accordance with this policy.

Telework employees must perform work during scheduled teleworking hours. Employees may not engage in other activities while teleworking that would not be permitted at the regular worksite, such as a child, elder, other dependent care or personal business.

Telework employees may address personal business during their unpaid lunch period or during scheduled PTO leave, as they would at the regular worksite.

C. Eligibility

Eligibility for teleworking is based on both the position and the employee. Not every job or every employee will qualify for telework.

1. Position eligibility

An employee's position may be suitable for telework when the essential job duties:

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

- Are independent in nature;
- Are primarily knowledge-based;
- Do not require frequent interaction at the regular worksite with supervisors, colleagues, clients or the public, in person or by phone;
- Do not require the employee's immediate presence at the regular worksite to address unscheduled events, unless alternative arrangements for coverage are possible; and
- Are not critical to the continuation of operations on a limited basis.

2. Employee eligibility

Employees may be suitable for telework when their personal characteristics, as determined by the supervisor, include:

- Dependability, responsibility and productivity;
- Effective communication with supervisors, coworkers and clients;
- The ability to work independently;
- A thorough knowledge of their job duties and an exceptional skill in performing them consistently and accurately;
- The ability to prioritize work effectively;
- Possess reliable internet if needed; and
- Exceptional organizational and time management skills.

Employees who are under disciplinary action, not meeting performance or conduct expectations or are on a probationary period are not eligible to telework.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

D. Implementing telework

Telework is available on an occasional or regular basis. Regular telework means the employee teleworks at least one day per pay period. Telework may be appropriate for attracting potential applicants, retaining employees and providing reasonable accommodations to current employees.

Occasional telework means an employee works away from the office on an infrequent, one-time or irregular basis. This option provides an ideal arrangement for employees who generally need to be in the office but who sometimes have projects, assignments or other circumstances that meet the eligibility criteria.

Employees who telework must be available to work at the regular worksite on telework days, if needed. Occasional requests by employees to change their regularly scheduled telework days should be accommodated by the supervisor, if possible. Employees must obtain prior authorization to change a regularly scheduled telework day.

The teleworker will attend job-related meetings, training sessions and conferences as required by the department head/elected official or designee. While teleworking, the teleworker must be available via telephone, email and electronic messaging during agreed-upon work hours. The department head/elected official or designee will agree on how to handle telephone messages, including feasibility of call forwarding and frequency of checking telephone messages.

E. Work hours

All the rules applicable at the regular worksite are applicable while telework is being performed. Such rules include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Employees must perform designated work during scheduled work hours;
- Employees must account for and report time spent teleworking the same way they would at the regular worksite, or according to the terms of the telework agreement;
- Time accounting should be included in the telework agreement;
- Employees may work overtime only when directed to do so and approved in advance by the supervisor;
- Employees must obtain approval to use paid time off (PTO) or other leave in the same manner as departmental employees who do not telework;
- Employee is required to satisfactorily complete all assigned work in a timely manner during telework days; and
- Employees who become ill must report the hours actually worked and use PTO for hours not worked in accordance to their department/office attendance policy.

CHAPTER IV (BENEFITS)

F. Regular worksite

The official regular worksite for employees covered by a telework agreement shall be considered for all Arizona locations.

G. Telework worksite

A teleworking employee must designate a work area suitable for performing official County business. Requirements for the work area will vary depending on the nature of the work and the equipment needed and may be determined by the department/office.

It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure that all of the requirements to perform official work at their residence are met to ensure tasks are performed safely and securely. Employees must maintain a professional background in video meetings. Employees will conduct an inspection of their telework worksite, complete, sign the required inspection form, and submit it to their supervisor prior to their first day of teleworking.

Employees approved by their Department Head/Elected Official to telework are covered by workers' compensation laws while performing work duties at their designated alternate locations during regular work hours. Employees who suffer a work-related injury or illness while teleworking must notify their supervisor and complete the required forms immediately as outlined in the Yuma County Risk Management policy.

H. Request, approval and termination for telework

A telework agreement is required for any teleworker and must be approved in advance by the Department Head/Elected Official.

An employee may request telework as provided under PR 104 (D) as a reasonable accommodation. Human resources will prepare the required documentation for Department Head/Elected Official approval and shall provide copies of approval, if granted, to the employee and the employee's Department Head/Elected Official.

In approving the telework schedule, the Department Head/Elected Official will take into consideration the overall impact of the teleworker's total time away from the regular worksite. Considerations include flextime and compressed workweek schedules, meetings, consultations, presentations and conferences. Consideration will be given to the overall effect of the teleworker's and co-workers' schedules in maintaining adequate communication.

Approval of telework agreements will be made on a case-by-case basis and in consideration of the employee's performance and abilities, job duties and technical requirements as assessed by the Department Head/Elected Official or designee.

Approved telework requests shall be forwarded to human resources. Human resources will forward a copy of the request to Information Technology Services (ITS) and a copy placed in the employee's personnel file.

A Department Head/Elected Official shall terminate the telework agreement should the employee's performance not meet the minimum standards or the arrangement fails to meet the needs of the department/office and/or county.

Upon conclusion of an approved telework period, the department/office is responsible for submitting the requisite forms to ITS for terminating the employee's remote access to his or her email and electronic documents and folders.

I. Equipment and supplies

A telework employee does not obtain any rights to county equipment, software or supplies provided in connection with telework. The employee must immediately return all county equipment, software and supplies at the conclusion of the telework arrangement, employee termination or at the department/office request.

Equipment, software or supplies provided by the county are for county business only. Any equipment, software, files and databases provided by the county shall remain the property of the county and shall not be used by anyone other than the teleworking employee.

As part of any telework agreement, the employee's department head/elected official or designee shall request an assessment of the requesting employee's computer equipment and software needs through the ITS support desk at least 20 days prior to the implementation of the telework agreement. The assessment will look at the employee's current county computer equipment and software and provide recommendations to the department head/elected official or designee during the agreement approval process.

For security reasons teleworkers should never use open Wi-Fi networks (typically free Wi-Fi in public places) to perform county business. Internet connections shall be password protected. Employees must have access to a reliable high-speed internet connection sufficient to perform their work-related duties.

Products, documents and records used and/or developed while teleworking shall remain the property of the county and are subject to county policies regarding confidentiality and records retention requirements.

For telework jobs that have security and/or confidentiality requirements, procedures must be established to guarantee protection of confidential information. Procedures may include a locked or secure workplace, computer access passwords, or restricted use of files at the telework site. If security and/or confidentiality issues exist, they need to be addressed in the telework agreement.

The county does not provide coverage for employee-owned property unless agreed to in writing prior to any loss or damage, as per A.R.S. § 41-621(a)(4). Covered employee property damage claims are paid based on the actual cash value and not replacement cost.

County equipment in the home office must be used and maintained in accordance with county policies and guidelines. The employee is responsible for reporting lost or damaged equipment to their supervisor and to Risk Management.
